PASTOR'S COLUMN

Every year, The Feast of the Baptism of the Lord reminds us that the Lord became one of us at Christmas that we might become like Him through Baptism and the life of Grace.

"Having reached adulthood, Jesus began his public ministry by going to the River Jordan to receive from John a baptism of penance and conversion. What might seem paradoxical in our eyes actually happened. Did Jesus need penance and conversion? Of course not. Yet the One who is without sin put himself among sinners to have himself baptized, to make this act of penance. The Holy One of God joined those who recognized they were in need of forgiveness and asked God for the gift of conversion, that is, the grace to return to him with their whole heart, to belong totally to him. Jesus chose to join the ranks of sinners, to be in solidarity with them, expressing God's closeness.

Jesus shows his solidarity with us, with our efforts to convert and to be rid of our selfishness, to break away from our sins in order to tell us that if we accept him in our life, he can uplift us and lead us to the heights of God the Father. And Jesus' solidarity is not, as it were, a mere exercise of mind and will. Jesus truly immersed himself in our human condition, lived it to the end, in all things, save sin, and was able to understand our weakness and frailty. For this reason he was moved to compassion, he chose to "suffer with" men and women, to become a penitent with us. This is God's work which Jesus wanted to carry out: The divine mission to heal those who are wounded and give medicine to the sick, to take upon himself the sin of the world. (Pope Benedict XVI, Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, 2013)

Contemplating the great mystery which we celebrate today, recognizing the Lord's closeness to us poor sinners, and renewing the promises of our own baptism, may we be "inwardly transformed through Him whom we recognize as outwardly like ourselves (Collect)" for the glory of God and salvation of souls.

Adult Confirmation

April 26, 2026 - Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist

The Sacrament of Confirmation is one of the three sacraments necessary for full initiation in the Church. Through Confirmation, God bestows many graces for the Christian Life and a strengthening in the Gifts of the Holy Spirit. Confirmation is necessary for serving as a godparent for Baptism or Confirmation sponsor and should also be received prior to Christian Marriage.

Catholics 14 years and older who have been baptized AND have received first Communion, but for whatever reason have not received Confirmation, are invited to attend a series of classes to prepare for the sacrament. Classes will be held in March.

To begin, contact Lori Mascia, Pastoral Associate.
