PASTOR'S COLUMN

Last week in my bulletin column, I shared how October is traditionally devoted to the Rosary and encouraged it's prayerful recitation. This last week, His Holiness, Pope Leo XIV, also called upon us to pray the Rosary: "I invite everyone, each day of the coming month, to pray the Rosary for peace—personally, in the family, and in community."

I'd like to share with you a method of praying the Rosary that I've been using for a number of years now. I offer each decade of the Rosary, each set of 10 Hail Mary's for a particular intention. No matter which set of mysteries I am offering: the joyful mysteries, the sorrowful mysteries, the luminous mysteries, or the glorious mysteries, I offer each decade for a specific intention.

The first decade I offer for those whom I have difficulty exercising charity toward. We all have people in our lives who are difficult to love. I pray for them first, offering that first decade for an expansion of my heart.

I offer the second decade for those who are sick and suffering. As pastor, many parishioners ask for my prayers, and during this second decade, I bring to the Lord those of you who are sick and suffering: Those who are lonely, those who are addicted, those who are anxious, those who are preparing for surgery or dealing with heavy burdens, those who are dying or grieving.

The third decade I offer for a flourishing of spiritual gifts in the parish. In the third glorious mystery, the Holy Spirit descends upon the Church and in the third joyful mystery, Christ is born into the world. So, I pray for the Holy Spirit's gifts, and the life of Christ to fill this parish, to make us more effective in our Gospel mission.

In the fourth decade, I pray for priests. Priests need to support each other in prayer. The devil hates priests and is bent on the corruption of priests. So, I take up the mighty spiritual weapon of the Rosary to pray for the protection of priests from evil and temptation and the flourishing of their ministry.

In the fifth decade, I pray for myself. We need to pray for ourselves—to humbly admit what we need from the Lord, and to pray to be docile to the divine will—to be humble and holy. I pray for the grace to be crucified with Christ, like in the fifth sorrowful mystery, to honor our lady as queen of heaven and earth like in the fifth glorious mystery, to be broken and shared like the Eucharist as in the fifth luminous mystery, and to find Jesus in the hidden events of my life as He was found in the Temple in the fifth joyful mystery.

I invite you to use or adapt this method—for your family, your community, and yourself, for the glory of God and the salvation of souls.

Fr. Kevin Estabrook
