PASTOR'S COLUMN

"Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths." During Advent, we prepare for the Lord's arrival in a number of ways. We decorate our homes and churches, purchase gifts, bake cookies, etc. But most importantly, we are to prepare spiritually by decorating our lives with Advent prayers and liturgies and Advent virtues, like those symbolized by the Advent Wreath (hope, charity, joy, and peace).

On this second Sunday of Advent, we are presented with the most virtuous figure of St. John the Baptist. The Baptist exemplifies a number of Advent virtues with which we should seek to adorn our souls.

The Virtue of Self-Denial: St. John lived far from the luxuries of the world in the solitude of the desert, wearing one single, coarse, rough garment, eating locusts and honey. We do well to cultivate self-denial during Advent by fasting and practicing some form of mortification.

The Virtue of Obedience: St. John had the difficult task of preaching penance to the sensual and worldly-minded, but John promptly undertook the task because God commanded it. We do well to cultivate obedience by listening and following the promptings of the Holy Spirit in performing the corporal and spiritual works of mercy.

The Virtue of Courage: St. John did not hesitate to speak the truth boldly to Herod, the Pharisees and Sadducees, although he knew that they would hate him for it. Christian courage is the willingness to say and do the right thing regardless of the earthly cost. It takes courage to prepare room for Christ, to give more room to Christ than we have given in the past. A daily examination and a courageous Advent Confession can help us grow in this vital virtue.

The Virtue of Humility: "He must increase; I must decrease." John's mission was to point others to Christ and to get out of the way; he wanted nothing else but to glorify Christ and to labor for God. Consider how you are called to decrease in order to point others to Jesus.

"All of us can attain to Christian virtue and holiness, no matter in what condition of life we live and no matter what our life work may be (St Francis de Sales)." Let us prepare to welcome the Lord this Christmas with more virtuous hearts by imitating the saints in the concrete details of our lives, for the glory of God and the salvation of souls.

Congratulations to all of our Winners!

Hello, Parishioners!

This past month, we published the annual financial statements in the bulletin. In addition, members of our Finance Council spoke at Mass about Saint Clare's financial status.

It was noted that fundraising is an important and necessary activity to help Saint Clare meet its budget and volunteers are very much appreciated and needed to achieve success.

The three major fundraising events that make up the majority of Saint Clare's total fund-raising efforts for fiscal year ending June 30, 2025 are as follows:

- Calendar Lottery $ 5,000
- Fish Fry $23,841
- Casino & Nights Out $15,500

 revised to account for reserve balance not originally included.

We are fast approaching the 2026 Fish Fry Event and encourage you to consider volunteering. Without your help, it is very challenging. WITH YOUR HELP, we can make our second fry a resounding success!

Thank you for your past efforts and we hope and pray for your continued support!

God Bless you and those you love!

Just as The Advent season is a time of hopeful anticipation, reflection, and preparation for the celebration of the birth of Jesus Christ, this is an early message of anticipation, reflection, and preparation for our parish 2026 Fish Fry Fundraiser!

Easter comes early in 2026 so the Fish Fry Team is already working to make 2026's Fish Fry Better, Faster and to reduce volunteer workloads.

Whether you volunteered last year or not, please consider helping out in 2026 as a volunteer or as a team leader. Stay tuned for more information!

Once again Saint Clare will dedicate our Feast of The Epiphany, January 4, 2026 10am Mass to our generous Donors and Sponsors. The parish will be mailing our donors and sponsors with our Thanks for their help and requesting they attend this special Mass in their honor. When you see or talk to a donor or sponsor, please acknowledge their kindness because your personal touch goes a long way in keeping Saint Clare in their hearts!

Turning taxes into tuition

3 STEPS

TO SUPPORT OUR CATHOLIC SCHOOL STUDENTS IN 2025

- ① Review your tax liability from last year
(2023 1040 IT, line 8c) to help estimate the amount of your state tax liability for this year.
- ② Make an ASF donation before you file your taxes at: www.catholiccommunity.org/angel
While your donation can be any amount, the scholarship tax credit is limited to $750 per tax payer ($1,500 for married filing jointly) and cannot exceed your state tax liability for 2024.
- ③ Claim the scholarship tax credit on your 2024 Ohio income tax return
A tax receipt will be provided that documents your Angel Scholarship Fund contribution. This receipt is then submitted with the Ohio 1040 tax form.
