PASTOR'S COLUMN

As I shared a few weeks ago, the month of September is dedicated to the Seven Sorrows of Mary (the Feast of Our Lady of Sorrows is September 15th). During September, it is especially fitting to offer the devotional prayer known as the Seven Sorrows of Mary.

These past few weeks have seen multiple school shootings and political assassinations, not to mention the terrible irreverence towards God and sins against human life and the dignity of the human person which are woven into the fabric of our modern society. There is great cause for us to grieve. The Church "mourns with those who mourn" as Paul writes in Romans 12:15.

Seven times in her life, Our Lady's heart was pierced with sorrow, and so she has special compassion for the grieving. Those who grieve never make a mistake in seeking her intercession. We do well to bring to Our Sorrowful Mother our personal wounds, our family wounds, our parish wounds and Church wounds, and our national and global wounds—our broken heartedness, our shattered hopes.

We also do well to turn to Our Lady for those who do not grieve sufficiently for our sins. Her Son was born to die for us. His sufferings, which she witnessed and suffered in union with Him, were on account of our sins. Individually and collectively, we do not weep sufficiently for the sins which led to Christ's brutal Crucifixion.

Our Blessed Lord spoke of the importance of mourning our sins when He proclaimed in His Sermon on the Mount "Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted." So we turn to Our Lady's intercession to help us know our sins and to grieve them sufficiently, so that we may know God's peace in our world and in our hearts.

This week, Fr. Kondik was moved to compose a beautiful prayer to Our Lady of Sorrows for Clarity and Insight. The prayer is rooted in the prophecy of Simeon, where the Blessed Virgin Mary is told that "and you yourself a sword will pierce so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed."

I share the prayer with his permission:

O Mother of Sorrows, you who see into the hearts of your children, look upon me in this time of confusion and struggle. Pierce the fog around my soul with your light. Reveal what I cannot see. Help me understand what holds me back, especially in the matter of [insert your intention here], and guide me through this battle with courage and peace. I trust in your sorrowful heart, and I place this burden in your hands. Lead me to your Son. Amen.

Saint Clare music ministers Dan and Nancy Maier invite new members, especially men, to join the Saint Clare Adult Choir.

The choir sings every other week at the Sunday 10am Mass.

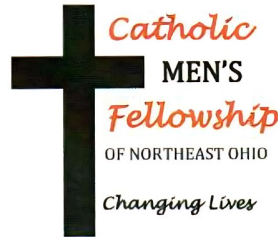

Rehearsals are on Tuesdays in the church.
We start rehearsals on Tuesday, September 23rd, 7:00-8:30pm.

Please contact Nancy Maier with interest or questions at nangmaier@gmail.com or 216-235-0475. We are a dedicated and supportive group and will be happy to have you with us!

Please, you must be able to read music and learn songs quickly.

We are also looking for a few more cantors to lead the congregational singing at Masses.

If you feel called to this rewarding ministry, please contact us!

Faith Formation for Adults with Special Needs Saint Clare True Believers

The Church of Saint Clare is proud to offer faith formation for adults (18 & older) with disabilities.

Do you know an adult who would like an opportunity to develop their religious faith?
Please encourage them to sign up so that they can begin to participate more fully in our Church community.

We look forward to celebrating the richness of the gifts that persons with disabilities have to offer.

Saint Clare Adult Special Education runs
Wednesday evenings from 7-8pm.

This Sunday is Catechetical Sunday.

Catechesis from Greek means to "echo" our faith. Please join us in praying for our catechists (some will be at our Noon Mass this Sunday) and pray for those who God is calling to join us in this ministry.

"Jesus did not call volunteers to do a job but he called disciples to answer God's call of service to God and the Church"

(Pope Francis, Symposium on Catechesis, July 2017).

*Do you feel called to join our faith formation team?
If so, please contact Lori Mascia lmascia.stclare@att.net*
