PASTOR'S COLUMN

October 15, this week, we celebrate the Memorial of St. Teresa of Avila, virgin, and doctor of the Church. Together with St. John of the Cross, she labored to reform the Carmelite order which had grown worldly and lukewarm in the 16th century. However, St. Teresa knew that not only was God calling her to work for the reform of the Carmelite Order, but that He was also calling her to reform herself.

For many years, after her religious consecration St. Teresa was herself was lukewarm about prayer. Teresa had difficulty committing her mind and heart to prayer, especially when prayer felt dry and arid.

But as she learned to quiet her mind and quiet her heart, she overcame her lukewarmness and would become absorbed in deep contemplation of God. In fact, she would occasionally experience such ecstatic union with God through her prayer that her body would levitate. And at times, she would become so overwhelmed with divine love, it felt like the illumining grace of God would wash her soul away.

This great doctor of the Church, who came to surrender so deeply to God in her prayers, penned a wonderful prayer for us all. She wrote,

“Let nothing disturb you,
Let nothing frighten you,
All things are passing away:
God never changes.
Patience obtains all things
Whoever has God lacks nothing;
God alone suffices.”

This is a simple prayer, and yet, it is profound. Her words are a reminder that everything in this life including our own physical life will change—that ultimately all things--our possessions, our health, will all slip away. Clinging to the passing world can cause us great anxiety and unhappiness, so St. Teresa teaches us to surrender and to trust in God--that true peace is discovered when we allow ourselves to experience the truth that God alone suffices. Unlike time devoted to worrying and fretting, time devoted to prayer in which we surrender our lives to God is never wasted. In prayer, we surrender our life, and learn to trust God more deeply as the path of life unfolds.

St. Teresa teaches us that the true reformer first reforms themselves, and to seek God ardently by detaching ourselves from worldly anxieties through simplicity, penance, and prayer.

May St. Teresa of Avila help us to be set aflame with the longing for true holiness, and to strive for the Christian perfection for which we were made, for the glory of God and salvation of souls.
