PASTOR'S COLUMN

Good Shepherds are found throughout Scripture. Abel, son of Adam, was the first shepherd in human history. Abraham was a shepherd, as was Jacob. Joseph was shepherding his father's flock when he was arrested and betrayed by his brothers. Moses was shepherding his Father-in-law's flock when he stumbled across the burning bush. Before becoming King of Israel, David was a shepherd. And the prophet Amos was a shepherd before being sent by God to denounce Israel's idolatry and hallow prosperity.

Scripture describes God Himself as a Shepherd. As his father Jacob lay dying, Joseph knelt at his father's bedside and recalled how God had been his shepherd every day since his birth. And the 23rd Psalm tenderly describes God's shepherding care: God is the Shepherd who feeds us in green pastures, who leads us to safety, who protects us in dark valleys. He feeds, he guides, he protects, even when we are sheep that go astray.

Reflecting on this beautiful imagery, we are reminded on this Good Shepherd Sunday of the profound relationship Jesus, our Good Shepherd, seeks with each of us. He knows us intimately, calls us by name, and leads us with love and care through the landscapes of our lives. His voice is one that seeks to guide us toward paths of righteousness out of a deep-seated desire for our well-being and spiritual flourishing. We seek to trust, to follow, and to find solace in the protection and guidance He provides.

Moreover, as we contemplate the role of shepherds throughout Scripture, we see a model of leadership rooted in service, care, and sacrifice. These shepherds were chosen not for their physical might or their social standing, but for their heart's disposition toward care, vigilance, and responsibility. We do well to imitate them in our interactions with others—to be shepherds in our own right—guiding, protecting, and nurturing those entrusted to our care.

Heavenly Father, recognizing Jesus, our Good Shepherd, who calls us each by name, we thank you for His tender care, His guiding hand, and His sacrificial love that knows no bounds. Father, teach us to hear His voice amidst the noise of the world and the empty promises of the Evil One. Guide us along right paths for Your name's sake, and when we walk through dark valleys, remind us that You are with us, Your rod and Your staff comforting us. We pray for the grace to follow our Good Shepherd more closely each day. Help us to embody His love, to offer guidance to the lost, comfort to the sorrowful, and protection to the vulnerable. May we serve others with the same heart of compassion and care that Jesus shows us. Bless our community, that we may be a reflection of Your love and peace in the world.

Lead us to green pastures and still waters, restoring our souls and renewing our spirits.

Fr. Kevin Estabrook

Year of Saint Francis

A special Jubilee Year of Saint Francis of Assisi has been proclaimed by Pope Leo XIV in honor of the 800-year anniversary of the saint's entry into eternal rest.

This Franciscan Jubilee Year runs through January 10 of 2027. During this time, the faithful have the opportunity to obtain plenary indulgences – a special grace of God’s mercy – under the usual conditions: Sacramental Confession, detachment from sin, Communion, and prayer for the intentions of the pope, by making a pilgrimage to any Franciscan conventual church or place of worship dedicated to St. Francis anywhere in the world.

Visit www.SaintClare.net for all the details
