PASTOR'S COLUMN

There is a beautiful prayer called "A Morning Offering to the Trinity" that I've been fond of saying since seminary that reflects so many of the beautiful truths and doctrines about the Holy Trinity which we honor and celebrate on this Trinity Sunday.

This prayer is a powerful way of our directing our lives and seeking the assistance of God Most Holy—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

"Most holy and adorable Trinity, one God in three Persons, I believe that you are here present; I adore you with the deepest humility, and render to you, with my whole heart, the homage which is due to your sovereign majesty. O my God, I most humbly thank you for all the favors you have bestowed upon me to the present moment. I give you thanks from the depth of my heart that you have created me after your own image and likeness, that you have redeemed me by the precious blood of your dear Son, and that you have preserved me and brought me safe to the beginning of another day. I offer to you, O Lord, my whole being, and in particular all my thoughts, words, actions and sufferings of this day. I consecrate them all to the glory of your name, beseeching you that through the merits of Jesus Christ, my Savior, they may all find acceptance in your sight. May your divine love animate them, and may they all tend to your greater glory. Adorable Jesus, my Savior and Master, model of all perfection, I resolve and will endeavor, this day, to imitate your example, to be, like you, mild, humble, chaste, zealous, charitable and resigned. I will redouble my efforts that I may not fall, this day, into any of those sins which I have heretofore committed (especially N.), and which I sincerely desire to forsake. O my God, you know my poverty and weakness, and that I am unable to do anything good without you; deny me not, O God, the help of your grace; proportion it to my necessities; give me strength to avoid everything which you forbid, and to practice the good which you have commanded; and enable me to bear patiently all the trials which it may please you to send me.

"O holy Virgin, Mother of God, my Mother and Patroness, I place myself under your protection; I throw myself with confidence into the arms of your compassion. Be to me, O Mother of mercy, my refuge in distress, my consolation under suffering, my advocate with thy adorable Son, now and at the hour of my death. Amen.

"O faithful Guardian and Father of Virgins, Blessed Joseph, to whom was confided the care of Jesus, and of Mary the Queen of Virgins, I most humbly ask you, by the love with which you bore Jesus and Mary, to obtain for me that, being preserved from every stain during my whole life, I may ever be able to serve them with unspotted purity of mind and body. Amen."

USCCB Action Alert - the United States Catholic Council of Bishops (USCCB) recently issued three “Action Alerts” encouraging the faithful to make their voices heard in three crucial areas:

- Peace in the Middle East
- Immigration enforcement
- Religious workers from other countries currently serving in America

From the Action Alert homepage, <https://www.votervoices.net/USCCB/campaigns>, each topic will lead you to a separate page that gives more detailed information and the opportunity for you to contact your three representatives in Congress by an email that is embedded in that page. You may take action on any of the three issues or all of them.

You can also subscribe to receive the alerts directly in your inbox. Please take advantage of this opportunity presented by the USCCB who have consistently encouraged us to make our voices heard and to promote the Gospel.

Catholic men
Strengthen Your Faith!

Will you invest two hours a month to strengthen your relationship with God, family and all those around you?

The men who currently attend the twice-monthly

Catholic Men's Fellowship meetings are convinced it has changed their lives. Meetings are held at Sacred Heart of Jesus parish, on the second and fourth Saturday each month at 8 to 9 a.m. in Mary's room (in the vestibule). Come at 7:30 a.m. for a coffee, pastries and comradery before the meeting.

We begin with morning prayer followed by readings from that Sunday's scriptures. We then listen to a fifteen minute homily by world-famous Bishop Robert Barron from his "Word on Fire" ministry, followed by a discussion of his homily. Bishop Barron's words are truly inspiring and thoughtful. They always prompt discussion of ways to strengthen our faith and our ability to face real world challenges in our lives.

Attend a couple of twice-monthly meetings to see if Catholic Men's Fellowship inspires changes in your life!
