PASTOR'S COLUMN

Later this month, on September 24, 2026, Venerable Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen will be beatified. Cardinal Luis Antonio Tagle, Pro-Prefect of the Dicastery for Evangelization, will preside at the Beatification Mass, representing Pope Leo XIV. Archbishop Sheen was declared Venerable in 2012 by Pope Benedict XVI, and in 2019, Pope Francis authorized a decree recognizing a miracle through his intercession. Following his beatification, he will have the title "Blessed."

It is always inspiring when a fellow countryman is counted among the blessed and saints. It's a reminder that the Holy Spirit is at work in our land to raise up holy men and women for the work of the Church. This particular beatification should certainly draw our attention to consider, study, and celebrate the soon-to-be Blessed's life and works.

I remember watching reruns of Archbishop Sheen's television show "Life is Worth Living" while in seminary and being deeply moved by his presentation and explanation of the various dimensions of our Catholic Faith. He began hosting the weekly television series in 1951, which was watched by some 30 million viewers.

Since seminary, I have read many of his books, and listened to many of his lectures. One year for my priestly retreat, I listened to a series of conferences he gave to priests and seminarians.

As his beatification nears, and in the months ahead, I encourage you to read, watch, and listen to his books, lectures, and programs. Some free videos can be found at <https://fultonsheen.tv/> and on YouTube.

Here are some books by Venerable Archbishop Sheen that I personally recommend:

- "Treasure in Clay": Archbishop Sheen's autobiography compiled shortly before his death, and in his own words gives an account of his childhood, priestly and academic formation, pastoral and media work.
- "Life of Christ": this classic devotional reflects on the life and mission of Christ with a mix of Scripture, history and philosophy.
- "The World's First Love": on Mary's life and role in the Church through the lens of history, philosophy and theology.
- "The Priest Is Not His Own": on the meaning of the priesthood, sacrifice and their role as an "alter Christus."
- "The Seven Last Words": a series of meditations and sermons on Jesus' last words on the cross.
- "Life is Worth Living": full-length scripts of forty-four of his top-rated episodes.
- "Three to Get Married": timeless wisdom for engaged and married couples.

Venerable Fulton Sheen, Pray for us!

Fr. Kevin Estabrook
