PASTOR'S COLUMN

During this Year of St. Francis, it is good for us to consider the lives of the Franciscan Saints. This week, on September 23, we celebrate the liturgical memorial of the Capuchin Franciscan Friar, priest, stigmatist, and mystic: St. Padre Pio. His birth name was Francesco Forgione and his birthplace was Pietrelcina, in the Province of Benevento, Italy. He joined the Capuchin Franciscans at the age of 15 and spent most of his religious life in the monastery of San Giovanni Rotondo in Foggia, Italy.

He lived a truly remarkable life filled with many amazing mystical phenomena.

As a young boy he reported experiencing heavenly visions and ecstasies. His fellow Franciscan Friars claimed that during prayer, Padre Pio would levitate. He could bilocate, that is, he could appear at two places at once, hundreds of miles apart. He could heal people like Our Lord, in the Gospels. Laying his hands on the sick, they would be immediately healed. He could even heal with his prayers.

And of course, Padre Pio had the mystical stigmata, the wounds of the Lord's crucifixion in his hands. He also experienced terrible physical assaults from demons, including Satan himself.

Why did God give Padre Pio these strange and marvelous mystical phenomena? The bilocation, the reading of hearts in confessional, the miraculous healings—are a reminder of the amazing things God can do in our lives when we love God with our whole heart, mind, soul, and strength. The Lord Jesus even said in John 14:12 that not only would we do the miraculous works he did in his ministry, but even other things, greater things, he said. Each one of us is called to make God's wonder and glory known in our lives.

No doubt, Padre Pio's mystical phenomena also was a great reminder to the world that God is real and that God loves us and invites us to a share in his own life through faith and communion with His Son.

And yet, growth in holiness, making God's goodness and love known to the world involves real effort on our part. To quote Padre Pio himself, "The life of a Christian is nothing but a perpetual struggle against self; there is no flowering of the soul to the beauty of its perfection except at the price of pain."

Padre Pio's tremendous holiness was the result of remaining faithful amidst many struggles, turning away from selfishness and vanity, doing penance, practicing mortification, and embracing God's Divine Will. May we do the same, for the glory of God and salvation of souls.

Bishop Edward Malesic has been asked many times during his years as a bishop for his take on the immigration issues facing the U.S.

Below is his short summary statement.

The QR code links to a page of his prior writings and links to statements he supports.

As followers of Jesus Christ, we are called to recognize the God-given dignity of every human person. This truth must guide our response to immigration and to those who come to our communities seeking safety, opportunity, and a better future for their families. Throughout our nation's history, immigrants have enriched our country, strengthened our communities, and contributed to the common good in countless ways.

At the same time, we acknowledge the responsibility of our nation to maintain secure borders and an orderly immigration system. Human dignity and the rule of law are not competing values. We can both uphold the security of our communities and ensure that those fleeing violence, poverty, and instability are treated with fairness, compassion, and respect. Meaningful immigration reform is needed to address a system that too often creates uncertainty, hardship, and division.

I urge all people of goodwill to reject rhetoric and any action that dehumanizes, scapegoats, or sows fear among our immigrant brothers and sisters. Every person is created in the image and likeness of God, and our public discourse and public policies should reflect that fundamental truth. We must approach one another not as adversaries, but as neighbors, seeking solutions that promote justice, mercy, and the common good.

We should also remember the sobering words of Jesus in Matthew 25:31-46. He reminds us that our salvation is bound up with how we treat those in need: "Whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me." How we receive the stranger, feed the hungry, clothe the naked, and care for the vulnerable is ultimately how we receive and care for Christ himself.

As we continue to show the compassion of Jesus to our immigrant families, we pray for those who face uncertainty and hardship, and work together to build a nation marked by peace, compassion, and hope.

Most Rev. Edward C. Malesic

ORDER OF CHRISTIAN
INITIATION FOR ADULTS

The Church prepares adults for Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist through a process called the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA) which involves the study of the basics of the Catholic faith, prayer and fellowship and preparation for the celebration of the Sacraments of Initiation.

PERHAPS you have been thinking about becoming a Catholic for some time but never got around to doing anything about it...

PERHAPS you are married to a Catholic, but have not yet made a religious commitment of your own...

PERHAPS you were baptized Catholic, but never received Holy Communion and Confirmation.

PERHAPS you were raised in a non-Catholic Christian community and want to learn more about the Catholic tradition...

OCIA for St. Clare Parish and Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish meets weekly on Thursday evenings from 6:30-8:30 p.m. Our first meeting is on Thursday, September 10, 2026 in the St. Clare Harvest Room (5659 Mayfield Rd. Lyndhurst, OH 44124)

To sign-up for OCIA or for more information please call
Fr. Estabrook at (440) 449-4242 x105 or email

Faith Formation for Adults with Special Needs—Saint Clare True Believers

The Church of Saint Clare is proud to offer faith formation for adults (18 & older) with disabilities.

Do you know an adult who would like an opportunity to develop their religious faith?

Please encourage them to sign up so that they can begin to participate more fully in our Church community.

We look forward to celebrating the richness of the gifts that persons with disabilities have to offer. Saint Clare Adult Special Education runs Wednesday evenings from 7-8pm.

Catechetical Sunday, September 20, invites us to pray for and support those who teach and witness the faith in our parish communities.

This year's USCCB theme—"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me... to bring good news to the poor" (Lk 4:18)—reminds us that Jesus brings hope, healing, and freedom, especially to those most in need.

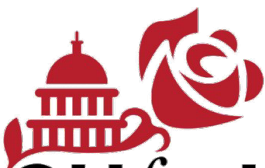

Our catechists continue this mission by forming children and families at Saint Clare and Sacred Heart of Jesus, helping them grow in discipleship and a deeper love for Christ and His Church as they journey in faith throughout the year. Please keep them in prayer for a grace-filled year of faith.

Would you like to join the team to share The Good News?
