FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

*Today we keep festival of your holy city,
the heavenly Jerusalem our mother.
Around your throne the saints, our brothers and sisters,
sing your praise forever.*

-Preface for All Saints

All Saints and All Souls begin our November-long remembrance of the dead. During this time of year, the earth itself speaks of death. Woods and fields give testimony. Frosted gardens provide evidence. Even the geese sing the music of death high over our heads. Our Catholic ancestors carved Jack-o-lanterns and lit the way for souls heavenward. They dressed themselves and their homes with spooky characters and images to laugh away the fear of death. The Lord Jesus had trampled down death by His own death – trampled it like a rotting pumpkin.

ALL SAINTS DAY A HOLYDAY OF OBLIGATION

All Hallows Eve
Tuesday, October 31
4:30PM Vigil Mass

All Saints Day
Wednesday, November 1
8:30AM & 7:00PM Masses

*The Academy will join us for 8:30AM Mass.
No Adoration and no Confessions on November 1.*

Your All Souls' Day intentions will be collectively remembered on November 2 at 8:30am Mass as well as at Masses throughout the year. An envelope was included in your last monthly mailing. Electronic givers? You may include family names and offering in a plain envelope marked "All Souls' Day."

Let the Saints come marching in!
May God be with you all.

Happy Priesthood Sunday

Father Klasinski

Father Brankatelli

Thank you for your “yes” to God’s call.

The Marian Movement of Priests Cenacle offers continued prayers and sacrifices for your holy priesthood.

PRAYER FOR PRIESTS

O Jesus, our great High Priest, hear my humble prayers on behalf of your priests. Give them a deep faith, a bright and firm hope and a burning love which will ever increase in the course of their priestly life.

In their loneliness, comfort them. In their sorrows, strengthen them. In their frustrations, point out to them that it is through suffering that the soul is purified, and show them that they are needed by the Church; they are needed by souls; they are needed for the work of redemption.

O loving Mother Mary, Mother of Priests, take to your heart your sons who are close to you because of their priestly ordination and because of the power which they have received to carry on the work of Christ in a world which needs them so much. Be their comfort, be their joy, be their strength, and especially help them to live and to defend the ideals of consecrated celibacy.

(By J. J. Cardinal Carberry)

The Marian Movement of Priests Cenacle

Join us each Tuesday in Church after 8:30 a.m. Mass to pray for our priests and for the Church. All are welcome. Please remember in your prayers the priests and seminarians who are listed in the bulletin each week.

October 29, 2023 | Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Ex 22:20-26 | 1 Thes 1:5c-10 | Mt 22:34-40

Written by

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Sometimes I stop paying attention to the news for a period of time. There seems to be little that’s “new” in the daily barrage of natural disasters and the countless ways we humans hurt each other. I’ve even stopped using social media, which at least made me smile when seeing photos of friends and family welcoming little ones or celebrating big milestones. Which brings me to today’s Gospel: Sometimes it seems overwhelming to want to love as Christ commands, and I feel that there’s little, if anything, I can do for people outside of my social circle, let alone on the opposite side of the world. Hearing of my struggles with compassion fatigue, a friend recently reminded me of some wise words that have been attributed to St. Mother Teresa: “Never worry about numbers. Help one person at a time and always start with the person nearest you.” We love as Christ commands by willing the good of the other. And it is not trite or cliché to say at times, “honestly, all I can do right now is pray.” After all, as the Lord says, “If he cries out to me, I will hear him; for I am compassionate.” When our compassion is exhausted, let the Lord carry it, for he never tires. And then, when it is possible, practical, and seems to be inspired by the Holy Spirit, we can do more – whatever that may be.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

If you’re like me and somewhat daunted by the second greatest commandment, I encourage you to take another look at today’s readings. “You shall love your neighbor...” (emphasis added). Surely the world is far too large for us to make a difference? Therefore, remember that “God so loved the world” – and what he asks of us is to love our neighbor. So leave the world to God; pray for and give alms for those bigger world issues when we’re able. When our circumstances change and we have more time and energy to take on more, such as participate in ministry, even better! But until then, when we walk out our front door in the morning, we go forth knowing that we are “imitators ... of the Lord,” and that this smaller, much more manageable part of the world is what we are called to tend. Let our most active role in being the body of Christ extend to what is immediate to us – our neighbor and community – because that is where we will have the most influence for Christ in the world.

MEDITATE When you feel overwhelmed with the world, reflect upon today’s responsorial psalm: “I love you, Lord, my strength.” Let God’s love for the world and his strength flow into your heart, and know that you can call on him to help you bear the burden of love.
