FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My 73-year-old right knee has failed me. As a result, I am scheduled for total knee replacement on Tuesday, November 26 at Hillcrest Hospital. Father Brankatelli is generously providing me the opportunity to convalesce at Saint Clare Rectory where I feel safe and at home. He is a true brother in Christ. Father Brankatelli will serve as Administrator of Saint Clare Parish and Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish. No additional priest will be assigned to support daily ministry. Be good to Father and ease his burdens any way you can. Our priestly fraternity is fond of saying: Oremus pro invicem – Let us pray for one another. Thank you and may God be with you all.

Thanksgiving Food and Clothing Drive All Masses November 23 and 24

Food will be collected the weekend before Thanksgiving for the Saint Aloysius Hunger Center at 10932 Saint Clair Avenue, Cleveland, and for those within our parish area. If food can be shared with you, please contact our Outreach members through the parish business office at 440-449-4242, extension 161.

Please bring your food items to Room 12 in the school hallway near the Saint Clare Statue. In order to show respect to those being assisted, please make sure nonperishable food items have “best by” or “use by” dates of August 2024 and future dates. Thank you for your thoughtful consideration.

Because of lack of refrigeration space, meat-type products will only be accepted on Sunday, November 24. The Saint Aloysius staff members will promptly pick up the food at 1:00 p.m. that day. Check contributions should be made payable to Church of Saint Clare. On the memo line, please show: For Saint Aloysius.

This same weekend, we are also seeking new men's and women's socks (no children's socks) for the Father Michael Wittman Ozanam Center at the Chamber's Community Empowerment Center. Food and socks can be brought to the hallway near the Saint Clare Statue. Clean and dry plastic bags will once again be collected.

Thank you and may God bless you abundantly for your kind generosity.

Advent Giving Tree

It's time to start planning for our annual Advent Giving Tree!

For those new at the Church of Saint Clare, each year we partner with area churches to provide them with a wonderful Christmas. Our parishioners generously donate items that are requested for children of all ages and adults. The recipients are so grateful for our generosity.

The Cub Scout Pack 433 is always happy to load the vehicles. We are happy to have their services.

This year, the Advent Giving Tree gifts need to be brought to the church on the weekend of December 7 and 8 only. Attached are the gift tags to attach to your items for the church of your choice.

DISCIPLE

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

1 Kgs 17:10-16 | Heb 9:24-28 | Mk 12:38-44 or 12:41-44

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

“Give it your all! Leave it all on the field! Trust in your training/preparation/coaches.” We’ve all heard a version of this type of exhortation. It requires a great amount of confidence and trust – faith, if you will – to let go of our doubt and fears. The two widows of today’s readings had such confidence, as they offer us heroic examples of faith. The widow of Zarephath uses her only remaining food to cook for Elijah. She did this after receiving God’s promise that, “The jar of flour shall not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry.” The widow had the assurance that God would sustain her, and she lived by it – trusting she could give her all, because with God’s help there would be more. Likewise, the widow in the Gospel could make an offering to the temple treasury because of her limitless confidence in God: she gave “her whole livelihood.” From that moment, she would have nothing to sustain her but God’s providential care. By their unreserved acts of generosity, both women consented to rely on God in the most absolute sense. And in so doing, they silently proclaimed their faith in the personal and unconditional love that God had for each of them.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

So deeply did these two women believe in God’s goodness that they were able to act without fear. Confident in his love, they could give to the point of having nothing left. They, literally, “gave it all that they had.” Rather than being burdensome, however, their surrender was the basis of their relationship with God and therefore, it was a much greater treasure than material goods. This message is clearly at odds with the notion that possessions and wealth are the basis of happiness. By rejecting this idea, giving generously of ourselves and trusting God to sustain us, we gain more than we could ever give up. Like the widow whose jar never runs dry, when we fill our lives with what God offers and not what the world offers, we live with abundance.

REFLECT Choose one aspect of your life you can mentally “reframe” in order to see it not as a lack but as an opportunity to cast yourself more fully on God. Spend 15 minutes this week speaking to God about this. If you can, thank him for the chance to draw closer to him. If it is too difficult to thank him for your trial, ask him to help you see and appreciate how he is leading you along this path of greater intimacy with him.
