Thanksgiving Food and Clothing Drive All Masses November 18 and 19

Food will be collected the weekend before Thanksgiving for the Saint Augustine Food Pantry on West 14 Street, and for those within our parish area. If food can be shared with you, please contact our Outreach members through the parish business office at 440-449-4242, extension 161.

Please bring your food items to Room 12 in the school hallway near the Saint Clare Statue. In order to show respect to those being assisted, please make sure nonperishable food items have “best by” or “use by” dates of November 2023 and future dates. Thank you for your thoughtful consideration.

Because of lack of refrigerator space, meat-type products will only be accepted on Sunday, November 19. The Saint Augustine staff members will promptly pick up the food at 1:00 p.m. that day. Check contributions should be made payable to Church of Saint Clare. On the memo line, please show: “For Saint Augustine.”

This same weekend, we are also seeking men’s gently used winter-type clothing for the Father Wittman Ozanam Center at the former Saint Philomena Church. Items such as jeans, sweatshirts, boots, shoes, sweaters, flannel shirts, winter jackets and coats would be helpful. These clothing items can be brought to the hallway near the Saint Clare Statue. Clean and dry plastic grocery bags will once again be collected. Thank you and may God bless you abundantly for your kind generosity.

Saint Clare Community Outreach

BLANKET SUNDAY THANK-YOU!

A special Community Outreach “thank-you” to our most generous parishioners who donated blankets, pillowcases, bedding, throws, sheets, bedspreads, comforters, underwear sets, socks, T-shirts, jeans, scarves, a hoodie blanket and a jacket. All of these items were divided among Saint Paschal Baylon Helping Hands and the Father Michael Wittman Ozanam Center at the former Saint Philomena Church. Cash donations of $2,544 allowed for the purchase of 50 new blankets for the Father Michael Wittman Ozanam Center and 150 new blankets for Saint Paschal Baylon Helping Hands.

Once again, you, our most generous parishioners, with your donations and prayers have entered into the good works of the above organizations which have contributed to the health and well-being of the homeless and needy of our community. Thank you!

*You will be enriched in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion, and through us your generosity will result in thanksgiving to God.
This service that you perform is not only supplying the needs of the Lord’s people, but is also overflowing in many expressions of Thanks to God.*

Parable of the wise virgins, CCO

November 12, 2023

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wis 6:12-16 | 1 Thes 4:13-18 | Mt 25:1-13

Written by
THE FAITHFUL

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

I'll always remember that first Easter after my Dad passed away. It was when the promise of the resurrection truly hit home. Sure, I had always believed in heaven and that everyone had the possibility of spending eternity there, but until my Dad died, it had all been theoretical. Now, it was personal. Someone I loved deeply had left this world, but because of Christ's sacrifice, he had the opportunity to go to paradise, someplace where we will hopefully be reunited someday. I believe that's what St. Paul is talking about in today's second reading. We do "not grieve like the rest, who have no hope." We have hope! We have hope for our family, for our friends - for our very selves! - that we will rise again and spend eternity with the Lord and with those we love. Paul writes elsewhere, "Where, O death, is your sting?" (1 Cor 15:55) The sting of death is sin, Paul says, but Christ has won the victory over it. In being baptized into Christ, we share in that victory, and we are inheritors of the promise of eternal life that comes from death's defeat.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

The parable in today's Gospel is a reminder that while Christ has opened the gates of heaven for us, we must be ready to accept that gift and walk through them. In the parable of the ten virgins, we see how all fell asleep while waiting for the bridegroom to arrive. When he did show up, five were ready with oil for their lamps while five were sent scurrying to buy some. As a result, those who were not ready missed the opening of the doors and were locked out of the wedding feast. "Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour," Jesus admonishes us. Are you awake? Will you be ready to enter the wedding feast when the door is opened to you? There is nothing wrong with enjoying God's creation and gifts here on earth, but we must guard against getting so caught up in the things of this world that we forget to prepare for the next.

PRAY The ten virgins needed oil for their lamps to be ready for the bridegroom, but we need a clean heart and a steadfast spirit, as Psalm 51 tells us. (12) We get that by setting aside regular time for prayer and making a point to regularly receive the sacraments, including the reception of the body and blood of Jesus in the Eucharist and his forgiveness within the sacrament of reconciliation. Making time for the Lord now will mean we are ready for his return later.
