ADVENT: A TIME OF PREPARING WITH DR. GEORGE MATEJKA

For Christians, the season of Advent should be a time of reflection, of waiting and watching for our Savior's miraculous birth. But the secular world is full of distractions, with Christmas displays appearing in early fall. Secular celebrations and commercialism often whip us into a frenzy of shopping, decorating, baking, and scheduling encounters with Santa. Our faith beckons us to a gentler way, one focused on the divine and the coming of Jesus Christ.

Before Advent is over, spend time with Dr. George Matejka as he guides us in Preparing to Receive the Lord, on Monday, December 11, 2023:

Church of Saint Clare: 12:00 p.m.-1:30 p.m.

Followed by lunch: Sandwich wraps, chips and a drink

Talk and Lunch: In the Harvest Room

Please RSVP to Christine Davis 856-287-2216; crdavis730@gmail.com.

We will kindly collect a nominal freewill offering towards lunch costs.

Saint Paschal Baylon Church: 6:30-8:30 p.m.

6:30-7:30 p.m.: Presentation in the Church

Followed by refreshments: served in the Eymard Room

Provided by the Welcoming Committee

For any questions about this speaker series, please contact, Rosalie Lewis (440-227-8718) or Christine Davis (856-287-2116).

This speaker series is sponsored by the Spiritual Formation Commission.

Calendar Lottery

The 2024 Saint Clare Calendar Lottery tickets with donations are currently being received in the business office. The drawings begin January 1. You can return the calendar stubs with your donation in the collection basket during Mass, by mail, or drop off at the business office. Call or stop in the business office for additional tickets. Proceeds go to the parish operating fund. The sooner you play, the more drawings you are eligible to win.

There will be 366 winners this year.

2023 Year-End Contributions

Any Church donations that you wish to be credited to 2023 for tax purposes, must be in the business office no later than noon, Friday, December 29. Any donations received after that date will be credited to 2024. Statements for contributions in 2023 will be mailed to parishioners who have contributed $500 or more in 2023, and to all contributors who asked for their statement last year. To request your contribution statement, call Lisa in the business office, extension 113.

Our bulletin is printed at no cost to the parish. Our advertiser covers all expenses. We thank them and encourage you to support their businesses.

The Saint Ladislas Prison Ministry Pen Pal Program!

In this letter-writing program, pen pals anonymously (via pen names) develop a friendship through faith-sharing and prayer.

You may be surprised to know that this ministry works both ways. You minister to us as well!

If you would like a pen pal to write to you on a regular basis, please send a request to:

Saint Ladislas Prison Ministry
Pen Pal Request/George
2345 Bassett Road
Westlake, Ohio 44145

Feel free to share this paper invitation with others who may be interested in having a pen pal. There may be a waiting period as we seek additional volunteers.

Please understand that this ministry does not allow pen pals to send money or gifts, or to provide any legal advice. Inmates may not request a pen pal of a particular age or gender.

Second Sunday of Advent

Is 40:1-5, 9-11 | 2 Pt 3:8-14 | Mk 1:1-8

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Can you hear it? The voice crying out in the desert? While John the Baptist was the one literally proclaiming, from the desert, the coming of the Lord, we should listen for echoes of his message today. John foretold that Jesus – the Father’s Incarnate Son – was on his way to redeem the world. Through Jesus’ passion and death, the gates of heaven were flung open so all who believe in him would have eternal life. This is the Good News he proclaimed then, and the Church proclaims today: Christ has come! Christ has died, Christ is risen, and Christ will come again. This is what we prepare for in Advent – to celebrate, on Christmas day, Christ’s coming into the world, and that he will one day return in glory. The Lord gives comfort to his people in his words, and in his presence to us in the Eucharist: “According to his promise we await new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells.” So, trust in the Lord, remain vigilant, and take heed of the voices that remind us to “prepare the way of the Lord.”

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Each year, we are given the gift of Advent. It is a season that invites us to slow down, reflect on the gift of Jesus and prepare to celebrate the Nativity of the Lord. Ironically, though, it happens at one of the most frenzied times of the year as we rush to keep up with cookie baking, tree decorating and merry-making. Advent is short – it includes four Sundays but can be three to four weeks long depending on the weekday upon which Christmas falls – and it sometimes doesn’t seem long enough to truly prepare our hearts. This year Advent is three weeks and a day – so we are close to reaching the midway point, which is a good time to ask ourselves: How tuned in are we to John the Baptist’s message? If we feel like we’re being carried along in a wave of consumerism, it’s not too late to make a course correction. We can step away from the fray and carve out time to enjoy the stillness of Advent and truly listen to the voice crying out in the desert.

SING Furrows, be glad. Though earth is bare,

One more seed is planted there:

Give up your strength the seed to nourish,

That in course the flower may flourish.

People, look east and sing today:

Love, the rose, is on the way.

“Prepare the way of the Lord,
make straight
his paths.”

(Mk 1:3)

Second Sunday of Advent

As it is written in Isaiah the prophet: Behold, I am sending my messenger ahead of you; he will prepare your way. A voice of one crying out in the desert: "Prepare the way of the Lord. Make straight his paths." Mark 1:2-3

These, the opening lines from the Gospel of Saint Mark, present us with Saint John the Baptist. John was the one that Isaiah prophesied would come before the Messiah. John was given the responsibility and privilege of being the one who would be the most immediate preparer for the Savior of the World.

Perhaps if most people were given the task of instructing John on how best to prepare the way for the Lord, they would tell him he must go to the leaders of the people, the civil authorities, the influential and those of status in society to win them over first. Many would conclude that the Messiah needed to have the full support of the leaders at that time. But that's obviously not what John did.

John the Baptist, at the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, was driven not into the homes of the most prestigious and wealthy, not into the halls of the civil governors, and not into the synagogues or Temple. Instead, John was driven into the desert. And in the desert, that dry and deserted place, he drew many people to himself and to his message of repentance.

God continues to call many today to follow in the footsteps of John the Baptist. Though John was a real person sent on a real mission at one particular moment in time, the mission he fulfilled is one that still needs fulfilling in various ways today. The "way of the Lord" still needs to be prepared. The Lord still desires to come to many, and He needs prophets to prepare the way for His continual coming by grace. Are you one of those people?

Truth be told, every one of us, rich or poor, learned or unlearned, young or old, etc., is called by God to prepare the way for His coming by grace every day. We are called to prepare the way by calling others to sincere repentance and conversion of life. This is done by the witness of our actions, by our words and by numerous other ways that God calls. How is God calling you to do His work? He is certainly calling you. You simply need to be open to that calling and generously respond.

Reflect, today, upon that "desert" to which you have been called, so as to prepare yourself and others for the coming of Christ. That desert is any place where there is need and every place where our Lord is not. It might be your family, work environment, community, among friends, or any place that lacks the superabundance of God's grace. Seek to enter those deserts and to be open to be a channel of our Lord's grace to those in need.

Lord, You desire to come to me and to all of Your children every day. Please use me to not only prepare my own heart and soul for Your divine coming, but to also prepare others to meet You. Give me wisdom and compassion, insight and strength, so that I can imitate Saint John the Baptist and prepare the way for Your most glorious coming by grace. Jesus, I trust in You.
