FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

The Diocesan Mission Office assigns a missionary to each parish to conduct the Annual Missionary Cooperative Appeal. This pulpit appeal provides parishioners with a snapshot of the evangelization that is part and parcel of our Catholic faith. It invites, as well, our spiritual and material support of the missions. I am pleased to welcome this year, Father Arnel Lagman of the Prelature of Isabela de Basilan, Philippines. A second collection will be taken up at all Masses on the weekend of July 16 and 17. Your offering is forwarded to the Diocesan Mission Office where it assists the Prelature and missionary efforts throughout the world. (If you wish to make an offering by check, kindly make it payable to the Church of Saint Clare—the parish forwards a single check for the total offering to the Mission Office.)

Thank you and God bless you for your support.

Fr. Klasinski

Placing Christ in the center of our life allows for better planning and organization, giving meaning and definition to each day. Discovering the grace of each moment then enables us to experience the blessings and joy of caring for another. Find how this path leads to being better organized and more prepared. This month's meeting, on July 18 at 6:30 p.m., will focus on Staying Organized and Preparing for What's Next.

Nourish is for anyone juggling the challenges of life, health and career while caring for a disabled child, an aging parent, grandparent, or spouse, either in your home, in town or at a distance. Nourish provides family caregivers with practical and emotional support, shared experiences, and useful tools, all with a Christ-centered view. Discover blessings in caring for another. There is no charge for the program. We meet at 6:30 p.m. on the third Monday of the month, in the Harvest Room of the Sister Lucy Center. For more information, call Barbara Johnson at 440-596-9408. Come and be nourished.

If you cannot attend in person, Nourish for Caregivers offers a virtual program at 8:00 p.m., the third Monday of every month.

For more information, visit https://nourishforcaregivers.com/monthly_online_nourish_group/.Session.

Psalm 37

*If you trust in the Lord and do good,
then you will live in the land and be secure.
If you find your delight in the Lord,
He will grant your heart's desire.*

*Commit your life to the Lord,
trust in Him and He will act,
so that your justice breaks forth like the light,
your cause like the noon-day sun.*

*Then turn away from evil and do good and you shall have a home for ever;
for the Lord loves justice
and will never forsake His friends.*

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

My favorite line in “The Wizard of Oz,” in the climactic scene when Dorothy realizes “there’s no place like home,” comes from Glinda: “You’ve always had the power to go back to Kansas,” she tells Dorothy. In the first reading today, Moses tells the Israelites something similar about wisdom and power. He tells them the secret to peace and prosperity isn’t “mysterious” or “remote.” He says “it is something very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts.” In the Gospel, when the scholar asks Jesus about the secret to eternal life, he answers his own question by reciting the two great commandments: love God with all your heart, being, strength, and mind, and your neighbor as yourself. “You have answered correctly,” Jesus tells him. At our baptism, the Holy Spirit placed the wisdom and power to have the fullness of life in our hearts. The key is to “carry it out,” as Moses advises the Israelites. Jesus echoes this message: We must “do this” – love God and our neighbor – to enjoy the life God wants for us today and eternal life with him in the future.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

One of the most heartbreaking things about being a parent is seeing children set limits for who’s in and who’s out. My daughter was in Kindergarten when she came home in tears, excluded from playing with her friends because she didn’t color a picture exactly as directed by another classmate. Our loving Father also sees our pain when we are excluded from being loved, and so when the scholar asks Jesus, “Who is my neighbor?” Jesus refuses to set boundaries for who to include and who to exclude. In using the parable about the Samaritan, Jesus tells us that we are to treat everyone as neighbor, even our enemies. The Samaritans were enemies of the Jews, and those listening to Jesus would have been shocked that a Samaritan was the compassionate hero. This parable challenges us to consider the boundaries we set for who we consider neighbors – those worthy of our compassion and help, and perhaps those we consider “other,” or whom we feel we can ignore or reject. And to recognize how the boundaries we set prevent us from sharing the Good News of God’s mercy to those he seeks to heal.

PRAY Ask the Holy Spirit for the wisdom to discern who you may be excluding as a neighbor. Pray these words from Dorothy Day: “Dear God, please enlarge our hearts to love each other, to love our neighbor, to love our enemy as well as our friend.”
