FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

*Our Lord bless thee and keep thee.
May He show His face to thee and have mercy on thee.
May He turn His countenance to thee and give thee peace.
Our Lord be with thee at all times and grant that thou be in Him always!*
- Blessing of Saint Clare

The city of Assisi is physically and spiritually anchored by the Basilicas of Saint Francis and Saint Clare that magnificently soar into the sky at the west and east boundaries of the medieval fortified town. Francis and Clare were baptized at the same font in the Cathedral of San Ruffino. Francis was of the merchant class and spent his young adulthood as a knight errant in service of warring princes of Italy. Without any purpose in life he was known as the city clown till the day he stopped long enough to hear the Crucifix in the ruined Church of San Damiano say to him: Go Francis, and repair my house which, as you see, is falling into ruin. The ruined church of San Damiano and the Catholic Church of the thirteenth century were repaired in no small measure by the itinerant preaching of the Franciscan Friars who gathered around the now transformed “Clown for Christ.”

Among many in Assisi attracted to Brother Francis was a young woman of striking beauty and noble birth by the name of Clare Offreduccio. Abandoning family, title and wealth she slipped away to San Damiano and there collaborated with Francis to found what would become the contemplative Order of the Poor Clares (locally on Rocky River Drive and Euclid Avenue). I was privileged to offer Mass at the altar of the Saint Clare Basilica above which hangs the very Crucifix which spoke to Saint Francis. Beneath the altar is the tomb of Saint Clare where her body is in open view. (She was not much taller and certainly as slight as our parish church statue at the southeast shrine!) In my twenty-seven years as pastor I have puzzled as to what to say about Clare that speaks to our contemporary lives. None of us are of noble birth nor are we contemplatives. I spent five days in Assisi. I walked each morning through the breathless beauty of the Spoleto valley and came to better appreciate how Clare and Francis saw God in His creation, to praise and admire Him. In the afternoons I would sit in the very rooms where Clare lived and died before the Blessed Sacrament and marveled at the Gift we have received in Christ.

Saint Clare died on August 11, 1253. The Pope hurried from Rome to personally provide the Last Sacraments and preside at her funeral. Saint Clare was canonized in 1255 – just two years after her death – and August 11 remains her feast day and is now the patronal feast of our parish.

The Bull of Canonization begins in this way: Brilliant because of her clear merits, shining in Heaven because of her clear glory, and on earth resplendent because of her sublime miracles ... To the glory of Christ. Amen!

Prayer to Saint Clare of Assisi

O Blessed Saint Clare, your life shines like a beacon and casts its light down the ages of the Church to guide the way of Christ. Look with compassion on the poor and humble who call on you for help. As you bow before your Eucharistic Lord in Heaven, speak to Him of my afflicted body and my broken spirit.

O most Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, we praise the Holy Name and the wonders of grace Thou hast worked in Thy servant, Saint Clare. Through her powerful intercession, grant us the favors we beg in this novena, above all the grace to live and die as she did in Thy most Holy Love. Amen.

O glorious Saint Clare! God has given you the power of working miracles continually, and the favor of answering the prayers of those who invoke your assistance in misfortune, anxiety and distress. We beseech you, obtain for us from Jesus, through Mary, His Blessed Mother, what we beg of you so fervently and hopefully, if it be for the Greater honor and glory of God and for the good of our souls. Amen.

Gratefully Blessed! 1944 - 2024

Elijah visited by an angel, Rijksmuseum, CCO

August 11, 2024 | Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

1 Kgs 19:4-8 | Eph 4:30—5:2 | Jn 6:41-51

Written by
THE FAITHFUL

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

In the first reading, we encounter the prophet Elijah as he is fleeing for his life from King Ahab and Queen Jezebel. He accomplishes a day's journey, then sits under a tree and prays for death. This is a tough scene! He is at the lowest point a human being can be. Yet in this darkest moment of despair, the light of faith flickers: Elijah cries out to God. He cries out for what he thinks he wants, and God provides him with what he needs, sending an angel (a messenger) to him with food and water for nourishment and strength. Thus fortified, Elijah continues his journey to Horeb. God took care of his tired, hungry, and despairing child. And over time, and through generations, his people continued to cry out to him, and in abounding love, God took care. Yet they remained separated from him. So he sent them, and the whole world, another messenger to bring food and drink for nourishment and strength: his Son. Jesus says in today's Gospel, "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever." With even just a flicker of faith at our lowest point, or in the best of times, we call upon the Lord and can receive the perfect nourishment of the body, blood, soul, and divinity of Jesus Christ. Through God's merciful love, he is food for this life and the next.

SERVE Think of someone you know who is struggling right now. This week bring this person some food or drink. Say a prayer for and with them. You'll be a messenger of God's redeeming love, offering nourishment for the spirit and soul as well as the body.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Our earthly life is never going to be easy. We will have exhausting days where we feel tired, hungry, and possibly despairing. What's important to remember at those times is that God loves us, travels with us, and he gave us the gift of Jesus to lead us to a heavenly banquet. To have a foretaste of that banquet here on earth requires us to let go of our fears, doubts, anger, and selfishness. Paul tells the Ephesians they need to leave their bad temperament behind and imitate God, living in love. When we open our hearts to the love and joy Jesus offers, we can turn to others and share the Good News that Jesus is "the bread of life" and the bread that he gives is his flesh for the life of the world. He gives us the strength to continue our journey, and to help others in theirs. We become his earthly messengers, bringing nourishment and sharing his love.
