Attending the Amazing Eucharistic Congress!

My sons and I had the blessing of attending the 10th National Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis in July. It was, without doubt, a mountaintop experience!

There is something about gathering with 50,000+ other Catholics to adore and worship our Lord that can only be described as a foretaste of heaven. The excitement and the love was palpable the whole time we were there. We listened to talks, processed through the city with Jesus, got involved in hands-on family activities, and made meaningful connections with others we met from all over the country.

And, most importantly, we spent time with our Lord in the Eucharist—sometimes in silent prayer, sometimes with an entire stadium loudly singing His praises. It gave me so much hope for our Church. God is so clearly doing something great in this time and place!

The experience was transformative and life-changing, yet time and time again we were reminded that revival might start here, but it doesn't end here. We are called to be missionary disciples, and, having received Jesus in the Eucharist, we must go out into the world and share the love that we have received.

At the end of the Congress, Bishop Cozzens of Indianapolis announced the Walk with One initiative as part of the final year of the Eucharistic Revival—the year of Mission. This initiative asks us to prayerfully choose one person we know who is away from the Church and to commit the next year to accompanying them, sharing the love of Jesus with them. We should pray for them, fast for them, and do kind and thoughtful things for them to share the love we have received. And, when the time is right, we can invite them to take the next step back to our Lord.

If every Catholic in America did this, can you imagine the impact it would have on the Church and on our country? What about if every parishioner at Saint Clare did this? What would our parish look like by next year?

I pray that I, and all of us at Saint Clare, will increasingly experience the love of our Eucharistic Lord and boldly go forth to share what we have received!

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Prov 9:1-6 | Eph 5:15-20 | John 6:51-58

Written by
THE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

We tell our children, from a young age through their teen years: make wise choices. It's a sort of catch-all to cover the endless possibilities of circumstances – good, bad, or neutral – they might find themselves in. But what does it mean to be wise? To have wisdom? In today's first reading from Proverbs, we are shown a depiction of wisdom herself, spreading a table where the guests will dine when they arrive. "Come, eat of my food, and drink of the wine I have mixed!" she says. This invitation is echoed in the Gospel, by Wisdom personified: Jesus Christ. "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day." Simplicity of heart and the forsaking of foolishness are the only criteria for accepting the offering of wisdom. It seems we are to come and be fed. But how do we discern, in our fast-paced, consumer-based world, what exactly is a wise choice? It's hard to advance in true wisdom; it is acquired by the humble and the simple, not the busy and the overcomplicated. Often, what the Christian deems important the world finds "foolish." It can be hard to keep our priorities rightly ordered, but advancing on the path to wisdom begins first by recognizing the centrality of God in our lives and humbly allowing him in.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

In Paul's Letter to the Ephesians, he instructs the people, saying, "Watch carefully how you live." I'd like to think that's where we got our "make wise choices" instruction, but I can't be sure. Again, the dichotomy between foolishness and wisdom is addressed. Wisdom is described as being prudent, which is living with one eye in the present, but also one eye toward the future, and being filled with the Holy Spirit. Elaborating even further, Paul provides a beautiful image of "singing and playing to the Lord in your hearts, giving thanks always and for everything." In the life of one living with wisdom, there is a turning toward true joy. Living in a spirit of gladness is in direct opposition to living in a spirit of fear or comparison. Since wisdom and understanding are both gifts given to us by the Holy Spirit, we can invite him into our midst and ask him to increase our wisdom, understanding, and our capacity for joy.

ENGAGE Cultivating wisdom and understanding is a lofty, but worthy, goal! This week, spend some time familiarizing yourself with the Wisdom literature of the Bible (which consists of Job, Psalms, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Song of Songs, Wisdom, and Sirach) by reading the introductions to one or more of them. Explore some of the Scriptures themselves.
