WHAT IS BEREAVEMENT?

Someone you love very dearly has died and the pain, sadness and confusion seem too great for any words to mean anything. Even life itself can seem hollow and meaningless and yet, the Bible tells us that everything works for good for those who love God. The one who suffers this loss is the mourner who must travel through the phases of grief. Working through grief is hard work, accomplished over a period of time and made easier when shared with others. The St. Paschal/St. Clare Bereavement Support Group can help.

WALKING IN HOPE...

A BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT GROUP

Each of us grieves the loss of a loved one in a different way; yet, many experiences are common to all. St. Paschal and St. Clare wish to offer support to widows and widowers, parents who have lost a child or anyone who has lost a significant person in their life. A six-week support group will be offered beginning on Tuesday, September 13, 2022. We will meet at St. Paschal from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. in a relaxed atmosphere with guest speakers, support materials and refreshments. Come join us and feel free to bring a friend or relative. This support group is open to parishioners and nonparishioners. Any COVID precautions currently recommended by the diocese or the CDC will be followed. There is no charge. For more information, contact Allison Krebs at 440-725-3269, Corky Mondello at 440-449-3584 or the St. Paschal Rectory at 440-442-3410.

Bereavement Group for Loss due to Suicide—A special 10-week closed session Grief Support Group starts Monday, September 12, 2022 and runs for 10 consecutive Mondays, 6:30-8:30 p.m., to support those dealing with the loss of loved ones due to suicide. This specialized support group is limited to 15 participants (at least 10) and an initial in-person intake meeting is required for registration. The meetings will take place at St. Albert the Great Parish, 6667 Wallings Road, North Royalton, Ohio, Hall A, lower level of the church. Please contact Terri Yohman with the Diocese Marriage and Family Ministry Office to schedule your intake meeting at 216-696-6525, extension 2322. The cost of the group is $40. Sponsored by The Diocese of Cleveland, in collaboration with Cornerstone of Hope.

"Blanket Sunday" ~ September 11

The Saint Clare Community Outreach is only accepting new wrapped blankets this year. Because of handling concerns, no other items will be collected for the homeless this year. Cash donations will be used to purchase new blankets. A "Blanket Sunday" envelope is included in our monthly packet. Donations are tax-deductible. If cash, please place in an envelope with first and last name of donor. If check, please make payable to Church of St. Clare. Envelopes can be placed in the Community Outreach baskets at the doors of the church or dropped off at the table near the St. Clare Statue in the school building. Thank you for your donations.

Families and Friends of Corpus Christi Academy,

We have nearly one week in the books and our trajectory is amazing. As we look at the first two weeks of school, we like to recognize growth, we look for “small wins” and “1% gains” from day to day and week to week. Considering our exponential growth, present enrollment of 21 up from 179 last year, we can celebrate a “small win” having shaved 10 minutes from our car rider pick-up time from day 1 until now.

At CCA, we believe that Jesus is the model and it is important to remember that in everything we do, as students, as families, as faculty, as staff, and as a community, we need to model that behavior for others. At CCA we are:

- Kind
- Respectful
- Caring
- Thoughtful
- Courteous
- Patient

Acting with these virtues, instilling them in our lives, and modeling those for others, is very important to our Catholic Social Teachings. As we grow more and more intentional with these actions, we can and will celebrate more and more “small wins” and “1% gains.” Please have a truly blessed day!

September 4, 2022 | Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wis 9:13-18b | Phmn 9-10, 12-17 | Lk 14:25-33

Written by

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Often, before writing these reflections, I take a minute to pray. I decided to add a minute of mindfulness using my new Apple Watch, which conveniently provides a meditation prompt. Today's happened to be: “Bring to mind a close relationship that can be challenging, and think about what it can teach you.” Like those paper messages in fortune cookies, even this auto-generated prompt carried a grain of truth. Our thoughts may turn to our spouse, a prickly co-worker, or a moody teen. However, given today's readings, it struck me that this description can also fit our relationship with Jesus. Yes, we know that Jesus loves us, shepherds us, forgives us ... but he also challenges us! He reminds us today that being a disciple requires that we go all in, prepared to place our relationship with Jesus above all else. Easier said than done. But we can start, one minute at a time, with our prayers, priorities, and actions. We can also follow the example of saints such as Paul, imprisoned for preaching the Gospel, and the saints among us who teach us by example.

STUDY Take time to read about the lives of a few saints. What habits did they create to lead holy lives? What vices did they give up for Christ's sake to truly become his disciple?

GO EVANGELIZE | PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

I bet we all know people we would consider saints, or at least well on their way: A compassionate friend, a priest or lay minister at our parish, a generous neighbor, that person who has not let suffering and loss shake their faith. Then there are the saints we Catholics celebrate each day: Francis, who threw off the cloak of privilege to live for Christ; Mother Teresa, who served others day in and day out even as she faced a spiritual drought; Paul, the one-time persecutor who built up the early Church and whose letters continue to inspire Christians. Each of them took Jesus' words at face value and laid down their lives for him. Learning how to be a disciple of Christ from studying the lives of the saints can be an ongoing pursuit throughout our lives. But perhaps we can also learn from a “living saint,” if the opportunity presents itself, and ask, in so many words, “what's your secret?” It may be praying first thing in the morning, or something practical that we had not considered, such as managing their time in such a way that allows them to volunteer regularly or to be a continuous presence in the life of someone who needs them. If other priorities have gotten in the way of our relationship with Jesus, perhaps we can challenge ourselves to develop new habits. Even an incremental change – such as spending less time or money on nonessentials or reading an inspirational book – can help us reignite our faith and free up our time to focus on someone or something other than ourselves.
